OIG: The Office of the Inspector General is the focal point within NASA for conducting audits and investigations to promote economy and efficiency and to prevent and detect fraud and abuse in NASA programs and operations. The OIG receives and investigates complaints or information about inefficiencies, mismanagement, or gross waste of funds; possible violations of law, rules, or regulations by NASA employees, contractors, or others; or substantial and specific danger to the public health and safety. The Inspector General will not disclose the identity of a person who provides such information without that person's permission, unless the Inspector General determines that disclosure is unavoidable during the course of investigation. NASA employees are protected by law from reprisal for making complaints or disclosing information to the Inspector General. At Kennedy Space Center, call: 867-4714, or call toll free: 1-800-424-9183, 24-hour answering service, or write: NASA Inspector General, P.O. Box 23089, L'Enfant Plaza Station, Washington, DC 20024. (OIG)

CELL PHONES, COURTESY AND THE WORKPLACE: For many cubicle dwellers as well as for nearly any meeting, cell phones are a distraction. Not only is the ringing an irritation after a very short while, but the resulting conversation is often a positive distraction, unless of course it is your phone and your conversation. No, there are no policies or rules against cell phone usage at KSC, except you can't use them while driving a government vehicle. But, there is courtesy and common sense; and these urge you to keep your distractions at a minimum. So, the next time you just have to talk on your cell phone, try and do it outside of a common work area, maybe someplace where you can have some privacy. When driving, picture the oncoming car driver as having just consumed three martinis, that person would the same degree of driving ability as you do while on your cell phone. Modern technology is wonderful, but there are limits. (BA)

Sam Riveria. Lots of fun, loads of food! Put on your desk calendar, wall calendar, blackberry and whatever technical gadget you have and "Save the Date," for our 2005 KSC Diversity Month Celebration - Remember the Theme: Diversity....."We All Smile the Same Language"

SEPTEMBER 2005 FOOD SAFETY: September is National Food Safety Education Month. Not only is it important to know how to properly handle food on a day-to-day basis, it is also important to know how to handle food and water during power outages and when in outdoor environments, particularly during hurricane season.

Hardcopies of the packet will be available at all medical and fitness facilities. If you or your department/organization would like to be added to the monthly packet hardcopy distribution list, please call Kris Calderon at 867-3414. The food safety packet will also be available on the soon-to-be released new HEWP website: <http://www.hewp.ksc.nasa.gov>. It is expected that the new website will be live by mid September.

FUEL 4 WOMEN

The KSC/CCAFS HEWP has launched a new women's health program titled Fuel 4 Women.

Fuel 4 Women* Newsletter: This month's Fuel 4 Women newsletter is on menopause. The newsletter will be available at all spaceport clinics and fitness centers and will be distributed at this month's Health Education Information Table.

Screening Recommendations: According to the National Osteoporosis Foundation, all men and woman 65 years or older should be screened. All postmenopausal women younger than 65 presenting with fractures, all postmenopausal women younger than age 65 with one or more risk factors for osteoporosis, and women on hormone replacement therapy for prolonged periods are also recommended to get a bone density screening. In addition to women, men younger than 65 should get a bone density screening if presenting with fractures from little trauma, or have other significant risk factors for osteoporosis.

Fuel 4 Women* List Serve: All women at the spaceport can join the Fuel 4 Women list serve where monthly newsletters and program announcements will be e-mailed to list serve members each month.

Please contact Jessica Crews, Health Education Intern at Jessica.Crews@jbosc.ksc.nasa.gov for more information about or ideas for Fuel 4 Women and to join the list serve.

NEW EXTERNAL HEWP WEBSITE: The HEWP website will have a new look and will be available outside the KSC firewall! This means that you can access the HEWP website from anywhere on the web. The new website is expected to be live by mid September and will be located at <http://www.hewp.ksc.nasa.gov>.

GRAPHICS/PUBLICATIONS: Before you begin any work for publication, consult the JBOSC Graphics Department. According to the print shop, approximately three jobs per week have to be reworked because of problems with alignments, reductions, and postscript formats. By consulting with JBOSC Graphics first, you will eliminate wasted time and effort to rework your project. Graphics will ensure your artwork is produced efficiently and is suitable for reproduction. Graphics has electronic transfer capability, a proven method for first quality prints directly from the original, compared to low density reproductions from copied artwork. For information, call 867-3838. For your convenience, JBOSC Graphics has two additional offices located in the O&C Building, Room 1152, 867-7419; and, in the OSB Building, Room 6204, 861-3814.
